HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

The following persons may be granted honorary membership of the club by any member of the Executive Committee or by any person authorised by the Executive Committee:

- a) Persons who are members of any recognised golf club who are temporarily visiting may be granted honorary membership for a period not exceeding one month provided that they may not be granted honorary membership on more than four occasions in any one year.
- b) Persons who have rendered distinguished service to the community or special services to the club.
- c) Persons representing associations or bodies which control the games of golf and with which the club is directly or indirectly affiliated.
- d) Persons competing in tournaments held with the permission of the club and officials acting at such tournaments may be elected for any period not exceeding the duration of the said tournament.
- e) Persons participating in the game of golf having paid the prescribed fee for that day and their companions.

Entitlements and Restrictions include:

- They shall not introduce any visitors to the club premises.
- Their membership may be cancelled at any time by the Executive Committee, or any person authorised by the Executive Committee.
- They shall not be entitled to be elected as an office bearer or member of the Management Committee of the club.
- They shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the club, or to speak thereat without the permission of the chair.
- They shall only be entitled to use the golf club or course at such time or times and under such conditions as are prescribed by the Executive Committee.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Any Member who has rendered outstanding service to the Club over a period of at least 10 years may be nominated to the General Committee as worthy of consideration for life membership.

The committee will consider the merits of the nomination at the next monthly meeting. If a majority of the committee agrees, the nomination form will be placed on the club noticeboard two weeks before the next Annual General Meeting and life membership will be granted by a two thirds majority vote at the Annual General Meeting.

Nominations for Life Membership must be thoroughly substantiated and received on a completed and signed nomination form, no later than two calendar months prior to the Annual General Meeting.

Life Membership entitlements include:

- The same entitlements as Ordinary Membership
- Relief from payment of the membership component of the annual subscription fee
- Other fees and levies will still apply as a reduced annual subscription fee, as an example - these include affiliation and insurance fees; any special levies approved by the committee, etc.
- No other benefits will be provided; this includes (for example) incentives offered to members for early payment of fees etc.

Life Membership will cease:

- on cessation of club membership
- on resignation of club membership
- as a decision of a disciplinary subcommittee
- by a majority vote at an Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting
